2010 Meeting

Richmond, Virginia

March 6

10:30 AM to 3:30 PM

Valentine Richmond History Center

Presentations

Danny Plaucher, Executive Director of Virginians for High Speed Rail, speaking on high-speed rail developments in Virginia

Meredith Richards, President of Virginians for High Speed Rail and Founder of Charlottesville Rail, speaking on Amtrak's new train service to Lynchburg

Chris Zimmerman, Vice-Chairman of the Arlington County Board, speaking on the Arlington streetcar project

The annual business meeting and a board meeting will follow the last presentation.

To vote, you must be a paid-up member. To run for the board of directors, send a candidacy statement to VARP chairman Steve Dunham, 8600 South Fork Court, Fredericksburg, Virginia 22407; email: SGDunham@Verizon.net.

Traveling to the Meeting

The meeting is scheduled to permit travel by Amtrak trains 67 and 194 in the morning and trains 66 and 99 in the evening. Call 800-USA-RAIL for reservations or visit www.amtrak.com.

Someone from VARP will meet Amtrak passengers at Richmond's Main Street Station.

There is limited parking at the Valentine Center in its lot off 10th Street and additional parking for meeting attendees in other lots nearby.

From Broad Street, turn north on 11th Street, left on East Clay Street, and left on 10th Street. Complete driving directions are available on the museum's website.
